KAMALJIT SINGH BRAR

From 2004 to 2018, he served as General Secretary of the Punjab Youth Congress (Ludhiana Lok Sabha Constituency), leading several youth mobilization initiatives, civic awareness campaigns, and leadership programs that empowered first-time voters and student communities.

As Sarpanch of Village Khote (2013–2018), Mr. Brar promoted transparent and participatory rural governance. He introduced sustainable development measures, digital connectivity programs, and effective conflict resolution practices—setting a model for accountable grassroots administration.

Appointed Spokesperson of the Punjab Pradesh Congress Committee in 2018, he became a prominent voice on public welfare, farmer rights, employment, and social justice. His strategic communication and policy advocacy reinforced the party's public engagement.

In 2021, Mr. Brar took charge as President of the District Congress Committee, Moga, where he strengthened organizational structures and deepened community outreach through transparent, performance-based systems.

His independent election to the Lok Sabha in 2024 marked a major political milestone, achieved through his reputation for integrity, public-centered policymaking, and issue-based leadership.

In Parliament, he is noted for his active role in agriculture, rural development, digital inclusion, and electoral reform—consistently championing inclusive, transparent, and accountable governance.

“At the core of Mr. Brar's leadership philosophy is a belief in participatory democracy, social justice, and strategic reform. He believes that real leadership is not about position, but purpose—about listening before leading, and building institutions that empower rather than control.

A strong advocate of ethical politics, Mr. Brar consistently emphasizes meritocracy, accountability, and community-driven progress. His ability to integrate traditional values with modern governance tools makes him a unique bridge between legacy and innovation in Indian politics.
